

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA
OMAHA DIVISION

WILLIAM FUELBERTH, Individually and on Behalf of All Others Similarly Situated

No. 8:22-cv-281

MITCHELL MANAGEMENT CO.

DEFENDANT

ORIGINAL COMPLAINT—COLLECTIVE ACTION

Plaintiff William Fuelberth (“Plaintiff”), individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through his attorney Josh Sanford of Sanford Law Firm, PLLC, for his Original Complaint—Collective Action against Mitchell Management Co. (“Defendant”), states and alleges as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENTS

1. This is a collective action brought by Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated, against Defendant for violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. (the “FLSA”) and the minimum wage provisions of the Nebraska Wage and Hour Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 48-1201, et seq. (the “NWhA”).

2. Plaintiff seeks declaratory judgment, monetary damages, liquidated damages, costs, and a reasonable attorneys’ fee, as a result of Defendant’s policy and practice of failing to pay Plaintiff sufficient wages under the FLSA and NWhA within the applicable statutory limitations period.

3. Upon information and belief, within the three years prior to the filing of the Complaint, Defendant has willfully and intentionally committed violations of the FLSA and NWSA as described, infra.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. The United States District Court for the Omaha District of Nebraska has subject matter jurisdiction over this suit under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this suit raises federal questions under the FLSA.

5. This Complaint also alleges NWSA violations, which arise out of the same set of operative facts as the federal cause of action; accordingly, this Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's NWSA claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

6. Defendant conducts business within the State of Nebraska.

7. Venue lies properly within this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and (c)(2), because the State of Nebraska has personal jurisdiction over Defendant, and Defendant therefore "resides" in Nebraska.

8. A substantial part of the acts complained of herein were committed in and had their principal effect against Plaintiff within the Omaha Division of the District of Nebraska. Therefore, venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

III. THE PARTIES

9. Plaintiff is an individual and resident of Douglas County.

10. Defendant is a domestic, for-profit corporation.

11. Defendant's registered agent for service of process is Patrick J. Sullivan at 1246 Golden Gate Drive, Suite 1, Papillion, Nebraska 68046.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

12. Defendant owns and operates Jimmy John's franchises in Nebraska.

13. Defendant's annual gross volume of sales made or business done was not less than $500,000.00 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated) during each of the three calendar years preceding the filing of this Complaint.

14. During each of the three years preceding the filing of this Complaint, Defendant employed at least two individuals who were engaged in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce, or had employees handling, selling, or otherwise working on goods or materials that had been moved in or produced for commerce by any person, such as vehicles, fuel and goods or materials typically used in the fast-food industry.

15. Defendant is an "employer" within the meaning set forth in the FLSA, and was, at all times relevant to the allegations in this Complaint, Plaintiff's employer, as well as the employer of the members of the proposed collective.

16. Defendant employed Plaintiff within the three years preceding the filing of this lawsuit.

17. Specifically, Defendant employed Plaintiff as an hourly-paid Delivery Driver from approximately April of 2020 until June of 2021.

18. Defendant also employed other hourly-paid Delivery Drivers within the three years preceding the filing of this lawsuit.

19. At all relevant times herein, Defendant directly hired Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers to work on its behalf, paid them wages and benefits, controlled their work schedules, duties, protocols, applications, assignments and employment conditions, and kept at least some records regarding their employment.

20. At all times material herein, Plaintiff has been entitled to the rights, protections and benefits provided under the FLSA and the NWHHA.

21. Upon information and belief, Defendant applies or causes to be applied substantially the same employment policies, practices and procedures to all Delivery Drivers at all of their locations, including policies, practices, and procedures relating to payment of minimum wages and reimbursement of automobile expenses.

22. At all relevant times, Defendant has applied the same pay policies, practices, and procedures to all Delivery Drivers at their stores.

23. Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers a rate at or close to minimum wage per hour for work performed while in the store.

24. Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers a rate at or close to minimum wage per hour for work performed while delivering food orders.

25. Defendant required Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers to maintain and pay for operable, safe, and legally compliant automobiles to use in delivering Defendant's sandwiches and other food items.

26. Defendant required Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers to incur and/or pay job-related expenses, including but not limited to automobile costs and depreciation, gasoline expenses, automobile maintenance and parts, insurance, financing, cell phone costs, and other equipment necessary for their job duties.

27. Pursuant to such requirements, Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers purchased gasoline, vehicle parts and fluids, automobile repair and maintenance services, automobile insurance, suffered automobile depreciation, paid for automobile financing, and incurred cell phone and data charges all for the primary benefit of Defendant.

28. All of Defendant's Delivery Drivers were subject to the same reimbursement policy; received similar reimbursements; incurred similar automobile expenses; completed deliveries of similar distances and at similar frequencies; and were paid a rate at or close to the applicable minimum wage rate before deducting unreimbursed vehicle expenses.

29. Defendant does not track Plaintiff's or other Delivery Drivers' actual expenses nor does Defendant keep records of all of those expenses.

30. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers for their actual expenses.

31. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at a reasonable approximation of Delivery Drivers' expenses.

32. Defendant does not reimburse Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at the IRS standard business mileage rate.

33. Defendant reimburses Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at or around $0.26 per mile.

34. As a result of the automobile and other job-related expenses incurred by Plaintiff and other similarly situated Delivery Drivers, they were deprived of minimum wages guaranteed to them by the FLSA.

35. According to the Internal Revenue Service, the standard mileage rate for the use of a car during the relevant time periods has been as follows:

2019: 58 cents/mile
2020: 57.5 cents/mile
2021: 56 cents/mile
1-1-2033 6-30-2022: 58.5 cents/mile
After July 1, 2022: 62.5 cents/mile

36. Regardless of the precise amount of the per-delivery reimbursement at any given point in time, Defendant's reimbursement formula has resulted in an unreasonable underestimation of Delivery Drivers' automobile expenses throughout the recovery period, causing systematic violations of the minimum wage laws.

37. Defendant charges customers a delivery fee separate from the food charge, but the delivery charge is not paid to the driver per the Jimmy John's website (www.jimmyjohns.com).

38. Because Defendant paid Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers a gross hourly wage at or around the applicable minimum wage, and because Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers incurred unreimbursed automobile expenses and other job expenses, the Delivery Drivers "kicked back" to Defendant an amount sufficient to cause minimum wage violations. See 29 C.F.R. § 531.35.

39. In 2020, for example, Defendant under-reimbursed Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers at a rate of $0.315 per mile (IRS standard rate of $0.575 minus the actual reimbursement of $0.26).

40. Thus, in 2020, if Plaintiff completed 2 deliveries per hour and if each delivery was 10 miles roundtrip, Plaintiff would have consistently "kicked back" to Defendant approximately $6.30 per hour ( $$0.315/\text{mile} \times 2 \text{ deliveries per hour} \times 10 \text{ miles per delivery}$ ).

41. Plaintiff drove sufficient miles per hour that the amount he "kicked back" to Defendant caused his constructive hourly rate to fall below the statutory minimum wage.

42. Plaintiff occasionally worked hours over 40 in a week, and in these weeks he did not receive a sufficient overtime premium because of the unreimbursed mileage expenses.

43. Other Delivery Drivers also occasionally worked over 40 hours in a week and also incurred overtime violations due to the unreimbursed mileage expenses.

44. Defendant knew or should have known that it was not paying Plaintiff and other Delivery Drivers sufficient minimum wages and overtime premiums.

45. Defendant has willfully failed to pay minimum wage and overtime premiums to Plaintiff and similarly situated Delivery Drivers.

V. REPRESENTATIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

46. Plaintiff brings his claims for relief for violation of the FLSA as a collective action pursuant to Section 16(b) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all persons who were, are or will be employed by Defendant as similarly situated employees at any time within the applicable statute of limitations period, who are entitled to payment of the following types of damages:

A. They were classified by Defendant as nonexempt from the minimum wage and overtime requirements of the FLSA;

B. They had substantially similar job duties and requirements;

C. They were required by Defendant to incur expenses to maintain vehicles for delivery of Defendant's products;

D. They were subject to Defendant's common policy of not reimbursing Delivery Drivers for automobile expenses related to making deliveries for Defendant's restaurants; and

E. They did not receive a lawful minimum wage or overtime premium.

51. Plaintiff's claims are essentially the same as those of the putative collective.

52. Defendant's unlawful conduct is pursuant to a corporate policy or practice.

53. Plaintiff is unable to state the exact number of potential members of the FLSA collective but believes that the collective exceeds one hundred (100) persons.

54. Defendant can readily identify the members of the collective, who are a certain portion of the current and former employees of Defendant.

55. The names, addresses and cell phone numbers of the FLSA collective action plaintiffs are available from Defendant, and a Court-approved Notice should be provided to the FLSA collective action plaintiffs via text message, email, and first class mail to their last known physical and electronic mailing addresses as soon as possible, together with other documents and information descriptive of Plaintiff's FLSA claim.
